The first Athens World Poetry Festival will run from September 23 to 29 in several venues throughout Athens. The Daily Odein, an online website ten years ago, is organizing an international poetry festival. "By giving a common field of creativity in Europe, Asia, Africa, and America." They want internationally recognized poets from 22 countries and 2 participants in a final and that guarantees that poetry is needed in our times.

In fact, it reminds us that "exceptional poetry was written during 4870 BC and 1000 BC in the East. It was during centuries that Socrates lived in the 1st Athens and Empedocles in modern Athens. Greece is a unique civilization in the field, with claims to the greatest and experiences in the country's rich and diverse.

"Geographically compact, but with a vast historical depth, Greece has been and remains a land of poets. On Homer's exact words during the day and in Homer's shadow at night, Greece continues to create."
